New Teachers!

GRACE HO (piano), M.Mus., B.Mus., and ARCT, specializes in performance and pedagogy. Throughout her undergraduate years, she started teaching piano from beginner to advanced levels. Grace was inspired to learn various styles and methods of teaching to improve the quality of education she could provide for all her students.

CANDICE MOK (piano & voice), BMT, received her Honours Bachelor of Music Therapy degree from Wilfrid Laurier University. She studied classical voice, and trained in instrumental and vocal improvisational styles.

As a teacher, she believes in focusing on a student's potential and ability, while developing their overall musicianship.

DAVID CHANG (piano), B.Math, ARCT, David finished his ARCT Performance with first class honours and won numerous Kiwanis awards along the way. He is currently studying at York University, specializing in piano performance, piano collaboration and conducting.

David has been teaching piano for more than a decade. His students display a passion for music and demonstrate great technical and musical achievements.
