

PRO-MUSIC
CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

Sept 2016

We give our warmest welcome to our new teachers!

Michelle Lau (M.Mus., B.Mus.)
(Piano)

Michelle holds a Masters degree in Piano Performance and Literature from Western University. Michelle aims to cultivate a life long love for music in all her students through exploration, play, critical thinking, problem solving, and personalized lessons to suit each student's personality, learning style, and goals.

Elsie Chung (LRSM., ARCT)
(Piano)

Elsie studied piano in Hong Kong and received her LRSM from the Associated Board of Royal Schools of Music, London. After moving to Toronto, she received her ARCT from the Royal Conservatory of Music. Elsie has been teaching since 1989. She is very comfortable teaching students of all levels and is active in organizing music festivals such as the Canadian Music Competition.

Angel He (B.Mus.)
(Piano, Music Adventure)

Angel holds a Bachelor of Music Honours degree from the University of Toronto, majoring in Piano and specializing in Music Education. Angel strives to help her students achieve artistic excellence by stimulating imagination, creativity, and music appreciation, while promoting a lifelong relationship with music.

Gretchen Lee
(Music Adventure)

Gretchen is currently studying in the auditioned Arts Unionville High School, major in cello. In addition, she also plays the piano, oboe, and clarinet. In 2015, Gretchen received the Top Female Triple Treat Award from Show Choir Canada and she was also the winner of the EdBolsby Senior Music Award. Gretchen wishes to pursue music in university for her future career.

Marco Wong
(Saxophone, Clarinet)

Marco currently studies saxophone performance with Dr. Wallace Halladay at the University of Toronto. Previously, he studied with Daniel Smith and Joe Varga, current Pro-Music teachers. He has performed with the Toronto Youth Wind Orchestra, the Ontario Provincial Honour Band, the Canadian Wind Orchestra, and has worked with many notable musicians. Some of his musical appearances include Orchestra Hall in Chicago, New York's Carnegie Hall, and Toronto's Massey Hall and CBC's Glenn Gould Studio.

Cherie Dong (M. Mus., B.Mus.)
