Biographies of Theory Teachers

Fernando Baldassini B.F.A., B.A./EDU., ARCT

In 1992, Fernando graduated from York University, studied compositions with James Tenney. During these years, he wrote many original compositions in all styles including a 10-minute background score used by a major advertising company. Fernando continued his studies in music education and graduated with a Bachelor degree in Education from University of Toronto in 2002. Over the years, Fernando's love for teaching is reflected in the success of his students as many of them are currently on staff in music studies. He has students received First Class Honours with Distinction in ARCT theory courses.
