

The pandemic has left us with quite a bit of free time. We can make use of this opportunity to do something that a lot of people have thought of doing but never quite get around to it — learning an instrument. Music playing not only helps maintain our cognitive abilities, regulate mood and reduce stress, it can also bring us, our families and friends closer together!

.New Violin Courses - Semi-Private / Small Group.

A warm welcome to our new violin teachers, Eiko Hosaka and Loo Tsai! Besides private lessons, these two teachers will also offer semi-private / group lessons for beginners from the same household or social bubble. Parents, grandparents and older siblings will be able to accompany their little ones and learn to play the violin at the same time!

- ♪ Age 3 or above ~ Suzuki Violin Group
- ♪ Age 6 or above ~ Elementary Violin Group

Please refer to the course pamphlet available at the School, or visit the School's website: pro-music.ca for more information.

.Welcome Our New Violin Teachers.

Eiko Hosaka M.M., B.M.

Eiko started playing the violin at the age of 3. She received her Master of Music and Bachelor of Music from the Tokyo College of Music. She has played in various orchestras and served as a violinist of the Hong Kong Sinfonietta, and performed across the world at prestigious concert halls.

Eiko has more than 10 years of experience in teaching the violin. She teaches students from age 3 to university level. She uses the Suzuki method when teaching the little ones. Her students received excellent results in examinations.

Loo Tsai Prof. Dip., B.M.

Tsai began his violin studies at the age of 6. He received scholarships and Professional Diploma in Performing Arts as well as Bachelor of Music from The Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts. He has given solo and chamber concerts, and joined various orchestras in concert tours. He has also served as the Assistant Second Violin Principal of the Hong Kong Sinfonietta.

Tsai has over 30 years of experience teaching private lessons and schools' group instrumental classes. His students received excellent results in examinations and music festivals.